OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 19 April 1967

25X1 1. [] Senator Ernest F. Hollings (D., S.C.) and Senator William B. Spong (D., Va.) visited the Agency for lunch and a briefing on Vietnam. Present for the lunch were: Richard Helms, Edward Proctor, George Carver, George Allen, [] and John S. Warner. The briefing ran until approximately two o'clock. The Senators were most interested in the briefing. Generally, the briefing was confined to Vietnam and Southeast Asia. Both offered to be of any help they could to the Agency on the Hill. 25X1

25X1 2. [] Senator Henry M. Jackson called asking if we could please see one [] Arrangements were made and she did see [] It appeared to be a FBI matter and I was in touch with [] and arrangements are being made for her to see an appropriate person in the Bureau tomorrow. Subsequently, I checked all of this out with the Senator who agreed that this was a proper course of action. 25X1

25X1 3. [] Met with Senators Hollings and Spong and brought them to the Headquarters for lunch with the Director. Both seemed to enjoy this opportunity to meet with the Director and to receive a briefing on Vietnam. Their remarks on leaving were characterized by Senator Hollings' statement that this visit was one of the most profitable two hours he had spent in Washington.

25X1 4. [] Met with Dorothy Fosdick, in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson, and received from her biographic material on [] which had been left with the Senator. 25X1

25X1 5. [] At his request, met with Jim Gehrig, Staff Director of the Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee. Mr. Gehrig is interested in exploring, on behalf of the Chairman, the possibility of a briefing on the Soviet space programs for the full Committee and professional staff. The timing of such a briefing would be the week of 1 May. I advised Mr. Gehrig that I would transmit his request and we would be back in touch with him in the next day or so.
